Sponsored by

THE POTTERS GUILD OF B.C.

July 20th - 31st, 1982 -- Robson Square Media Centre

This exhibition will consist of two sections: domestic and decorative ware in open competition. Each potter may submit up to five entries in one category or divided between the two categories. Only work executed in British Columbia since May 1981 and not shown in other juried shows may be entered. Pots may be for sale.

SECTION I--DOMESTIC WARE

This category is to encourage our good functional potters to enter, and will include pieces that are of a strictly functional nature, such as casseroles, dinner sets, tea sets, planters, bathroom sets, etc. If functional pieces are of a decorative nature they should be entered in Section II.

SECTION II--DECORATIVE WARE

This category will include sculpture, sculptural ceramics, murals, most raku and primitive fired ware and decorative lamps, vases, plates, etc.

PRIZES

Prizes will be offered in both categories as follows: First prize, $300, Second prize, $200, Third prize, $100.

FEE

Entry fee is $10.

JURORS

Jurying will be done at the end of May to enable us to prepare a catalogue. There will be three jurors, names to be announced.

ENTRIES FORM

Deadline for application and fee is April 30th. Upon receipt of your application, we will send you a form on which to list and describe your entries, and further information regarding time and place for jurying.

GALLERY SHOP

As part of Ceramics 82, as an experiment, we are planning a gallery where high quality pots by selected potters will be sold. Entry fee, $10 for members, $15 for non-members. If you are interested in submitting pieces for selection, please write to us. Address inquiries to: Potters Guild of B.C., 315 West Cordova St., Vancouver, V6B 1E5, Attention: Marilyn Thomas. Operating the Gallery Shop at Ceramics 82 will give us experience in running a permanent gallery at some future date.

Please payable to the Potters Guild of B.C.
