

PAINTERS.

AND THE

Derby China Works

*In conjunction with the special exhibition,
the Gardiner Museum presents the following lectures:*

Idyllic Quests in the Age of Revolution

October 6. "The Story of Royal Crown Derby", John Twitchett, Curator, Royal Crown Derby Museum, England.

October 13. "The Ancient Vase and the Modern Interior: 1785-1848". Professor Michael McCarthy,
Fine Arts Department, University of Toronto.

October 20. "Floral Decoration on English Ceramics". Betty Ramsey, noted authority on English porcelain.

October 27. "Some Thoughts on Neo-Classical and Gothic Revival Architecture: 1780-1840." Dr. Malcolm
Thurlby, Fine Arts Department, York University.

November 3. "English Romantic Painting and the Early Industrial Revolution". James H. Rubin, Professor of Art History, Stony Brook, The State University of New York.

November 10. "I Wandered Lonely As A Cloud ..."
The Lake District Poets and the Romantic Movement.

November 17 "Plants and People: The Voyages of Discovery." Mr. Allen Paterson, Director, The Royal Botanical Gardens.

All lectures will be at the Gardiner Museum, commencing at 7:30 p.m. Sherry will be served following the lectures.

Series cost: General Admission, $70. Members, Seniors and Students, $58.

Individual lectures: General Admission, $12. Members, Seniors and Students, $10.

The George R. Gardiner Museum of Ceramic Art
111 Queen's Park, Toronto M5S 2C7
(416) 593-9300