P.K. CANADIAN CREATIONS

P.K. CANADIAN CREATIONS LTD. is the collaboration of Paula Bradner and Karen Champion from West Vancouver, B.C. to both design and source high quality and uniquely Canadian home furnishings and accessories. Their combined backgrounds in design, sales and marketing, and specialty crafts are directed to establishing successful business ties with export markets.

At present the Company continues to focus its development in the Japanese market. For example, a line of decorative wooden chests and smaller gift boxes was designed with some very special features through the course of a two year market study of Japan. Both women are enthusiastic about the inroads they have established for promoting Canadian products in that and other markets.

P.K. CANADIAN CREATIONS is sourcing other Canadian products to promote in Japan. Each item must reflect the highest quality in design, workmanship and materials, as well as a strong Canadian flavour or image. If you are interested in having your product promoted, Paula or Karen would be pleased to speak with you at (604) 922-0060, or fax 925-9896.

As you may notice, this month's newsletter is a little on the slender side.

But do not worry, the December/January issue will be a masterpiece to look forward to. Good luck to everyone selling in the craft fairs around the province and please feel free to write me with stories on your recent endeavours! I am also looking for interviews with members around the province for the new year, so please keep in touch.

Recently, I perused the comments regarding the newsletter on the survey that went out last May, and got some helpful hints on what you would like to read about. For example, many of you would like more feature articles on craftspeople and information on home-based businesses.

This month I have added a new column called "Member's Forum". I often receive phone calls on topics related to craft that are not easily answered. This new column will help share the innovative ideas of craftspeople with the rest of the membership. This month's question is: "How do you, as a craftsperson, insure yourself and your work." In particular how are you covered when travelling with your work or working out of your home. Are your insurance premiums considerably higher?

Talk to you soon!

THE PLEASURES OF MAKING

All craftspeople in B.C., working in any media, are invited to submit their work to CABC's biannual exhibit, Made by Hand: the Pleasures of Making.

The exhibit will be in June and July of 1993 at the Canadian Craft Museum. Jurors are: Doris Shadbolt, art historian and curator, Lloyd Herman, an acting Curator of the Canadian Craft Museum, and Brian Baxter, glass artist.

The emphasis of the exhibit, as the title suggests, is to demonstrate and explore that most human of drives which is to create objects. We possess the ability to make and to express ourselves in tangible ways that create surrounding and forms that identify our humanity and place. The particular affinity of crafts to material and process will be explored, as well as sources of inspiration, influences of ethnic cultures and the collaborative process. We wish our public audience not only to appreciate the end-product, but also to understand the 'making' - the physical and sensory experience of craftspeople in particular.

This exhibit is a direct result of CABC's Symposium: "Quo Vadis 20th Century Craft?" last November, which explored the nature of craft. Please see Doris Shadbolt's article in the March 1992 Newsletter for further background reading.

Deadline for applications is February 28, 1993. Please see the enclosed application form for further details. Made by Hand Committee Members are: Laurence Heppell, Barbara Cohen, Kajja Tyini-Rautainen, Louise Jackson, Lloyd Herman and Jean Kuwabara. Please call or write to the office if you have any questions, as we would be pleased to answer them.

PLEASE NOTE:

Works in all media may be submitted to Made By Hand, including wood, which was inadvertently left out of the application form.

Volunteer Opportunities

The CABC presently has the following volunteer opportunities:

EDUCATION COMMITTEE: Trish Anderson, the chair for this committee, welcomes members to get involved.

YEAR OF CRAFT IN THE AMERICAS 1993: Margaret Hyslop, committee chair, has several exciting planned for this year. Volunteers are presently needed to help with specific projects.

MARKETING COMMITTEE: Presently the position of chair for this committee is open. We are looking for someone interested in developing our marketing plan. Experience preferred.

So, if you have some extra time, want to be involved and have some fun, or need a little luck in finding a job please call on us at the CABC office on Granville Island, 687-6511. Hope to see you soon!

TABLE OF HONOUR

On September 28, 1992, the Table of Honour dinnerware and goblets, created especially for Government House in Victoria, were presented to their Honours, Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. David C. Lam. The dinnerware and crystal goblets, crafted by the winners of a province wide Table of Honour competition, were presented and displayed at a Tea at The Empress Hotel in Victoria.

Ceramic artist Kinichi Shigeno was commissioned to create twelve "Bluebird" place settings and glass blower Edward "Ted" Jolda was commissioned to produce goblets for exclusive use at the vice-regal residence. These works, along with those of the other finalists of the competition, were showcased in an exhibition which concluded a sixteen month tour of B.C. and Alberta.

Historically, royalty and Government entertained visitors in ways that best represented their unique culture. Local food and drink and its presentation have become an important aspect of this custom and the use of dinnerware created by local artists reflects the pride we have in our culture.
